POETRY.

ECHOES.

The following very pretty lines will find an echo in every heart

Hark! through Nature's vast cathedral,
Blended echoes ever rise,
Swelling in a mighty anthem
To the ever arching skies.

Every bird that sings in summer,
Every honey-laden bee,
Every squirrel in the forest,
Every cricket on the tree.

Every music-dropping fountain,
Every softly murmuring rill,
Every dark and foaming torrent,
Every water-guided mill.

Every rain-drop on the house-top,
Every beetle's noisy rone,
Every footfall on the pavement,
Wakes an echo of its own.

Sobs of woe and songs of gladness,
Each responsive echoes find,
Words of love and words of anger,
Leave their echoes far behind.

Every great and noble action
Is re-echoed o'er and o'er;
Life itself is but an echo
Of the lives that were before.

THE NEW LIQUOR BILL.

A SUPPLEMENT

To An Act to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors, approved 31st day of March, A. D., 1856.

[As passed both Houses.]

SEC. 4. That licenses shall be granted for the keeping of eating houses, which shall authorize the sale of no intoxicating liquors, except domestic wines, and malt and brewed liquors, and persons so licensed, shall be classified and rated according to the provisions of the twenty-second and twenty-third section of an act to create a sinking fund, and to provide for the gradual and certain extinguishment of the debt of the Commonwealth, approved April tenth, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine: Provided, That no such license shall be granted in the cities of Lancaster or Pittsburg, for a less sum than twenty dollars, nor elsewhere, for a less sum than ten dollars.

FLOWERS THAT BLOOM UNSEEN.

The Boston Gazette is guilty of the following:

"Be it our grateful task to rescue from oblivion, and transmit to a limited immortality, from week to week, some of the choicest of flowers which blush unseen, and waste their sweetness on the desert air.—Here is a delicate and graceful little gem of purest ray serene, which there is every reason to believe is a fragment of a hitherto unpublished poem of Byron's:

"I met her in the sunset bright,
Her gingham gown was blue;
Her eye that danced with love's delight,
Was of the same dear hue,
And always when the sun is down,
I think of the girl in the gingham gown."

How posterity will appreciate this stanza. It is proof positive that in the nineteenth century, the usual stuff of which female apparel was made, was gingham, and that Americans had a decided penchant for blue eyes. The pyramids and hieroglyphics yet remain, though Egypt's Kings are like the ashes of cigars that have been smoked, and probably gingham gowns will in future time characterize in history, the age in which we now live, when hoops and red petticoats are no more recorded.—Ruit Ilium.

Striking, characteristic and original are the following lines, from which Tom Moore evidently stole his well-known ballad, "She wore a wreath of roses." The reader will perceive that they are presumed to be spoken by a member of that intelligent body of citizens, the New York Fire Department:

"I seen her on the side walk,
When I run wid number nine
My eyes spontaneous sought out hern,
She waved her pocket handkercher
As we went rushin' by,
And no butcher ever killed in New York,
Felt happier than I.
I seen her but a moment,
With her red and yeller bunnut,
A dawnin' o'er her brow."

Posterity will here observe that red and yellow were the prevailing colors in bonnets, in the nineteenth century. In regard to the plagiarism above mentioned it is so obvious, that it is impossible for it to escape any intelligent reader's observation.

A friend of ours brought home from a Western journey a fragment of a romance, which so impressed him that it lingered in his memory, haunted his waking thoughts, and pursued him in his dreams. There is a hidden moral in it which those familiar with Æsop and La Fontaine will not fail to appreciate:

"A grasshopper sat on a sweet potato vine,
On a sweet potato vine,
On a sweet potato vine,
And a turkey cock come up from behind,
And yanked the poor grasshopper off of the sweet potato vine."

It will be noticed that the above can be sung to the air of "Buffalo gals, ain't you coming out to night?" But there is a reckless abandon about the measure, which convinces us that if T. Buchanan Read is not the author, the onus must rest on the shoulders of Henry B. Hirst.

Searching in our portfolio, we find another fragment, in regard to the paternity of which authorities differ, some attributing it to Tennyson, others to Albert Pike. It bears the distinguished traits of each—but our readers must judge for themselves:

"I've seen her out a walking
In her habit de la rue,
And it ain't any use a talking,
She's punkins and a few.
She glides along in beauty,
Like a duck upon a lake—
Oh! I'd be all love and duty,
If I only was her drake."

In the above will be observed a dainty comparison, the equal of which it were difficult to discover in any of the Elizabethan writers. We shall resume the subject at more length shortly, fully appreciating the importance of a historical point of view of our labors, and satisfied that our task is one of no mean benefit to humanity.

WAGGERY.—Some time ago, on a Sabbath day, we wended our way to one of our churches, and instead of a sermon heard an address upon some missionary or other benevolent subject. After the address was concluded two brethren were sent round with baskets for contributions.—Parson L—— who was one of the basket bearers taking the side on which we sat. Immediately in our front and upon the next seat, negligently reclined our friend Bill H——, a gentleman of infinite humor and full of dry jokes. Parson L—— extended the basket, and Bill slowly shook his head.

"Come, William, give us something," said the Parson.

"Can't do it," replied Bill.

"Why not! Is not the cause a good one?"

"Yes; but I am not able to give anything."

"Pooh! pooh! I know better, you must give a better reason than that."

"Well, I owe too much money—I must be just before I am generous, you know."

"But, William, you owe God a larger debt than you owe any one else."

"That's true, parson, but then he aint pushing me like the balance of my customers."

The parson's face got into a rather curious confusion as he passed on.

IT IS EASY TO SPOIL A SON.—There are but very few that can bear the hand of indulgence without injury. In our country, in most instances, those who are to be great and useful, must make themselves so, by their own exertions and often by vigorous effort. Nine cases out of ten, the young fellow who is provided for—whose "father is rich"—will relax his exertions, and become a poor fool, whatever may be his occupation.

There is nothing so destructive to the morals and, we may add, to the peace of the community, as the neglect of parents, rich or poor, to teach their sons the importance of being early engaged in some active employment. Too many of the citizens of every place, under the influence of false pride, suffer their sons, after quitting their schools, to lounge about the public offices and taverns of their places of residence, rather than engage in some important branch of the mechanical arts; or force them by dint of their own industry and energies, to seek their fortune in other pursuits.—Nothing is more detestable, in our eye, than to see a healthy good looking youth breaking loose from the restraints of honorable industry, returning to his father's domicil for support, and loafing about it, rather than pursuing some occupation which will not only support himself, but give gratification to his worthy parents.

We would say to every father who has such a son, be he rich or poor—rather drive him to "cut his cord of wood a day," than suffer him to spend his time in idleness. "An idle head is the devil's workshop,"—and we may add, that idle hands are the implements he employs to execute his dark designs.

☞ "Ven you arrives to the dignity of sawen' wood, Lafiette, if you is ever elewated to that ere profession, mind and saw the biggest sticks fust. Cos vy? You'll only have the little ones to saw ven you gits tuckered out.

"Ven you eats pie, as I 'opes you will ven a man, always eat the crust fust, cos the crust ain't a good thing to top off with, 'specially if it's tough and thick as a sole leather.

"Ven you piles up wood, always pile the big ones to the bottom—always, Lafiette, cos it's mighty hard exercise to lift 'em to the top o' the pile. These are the results of hobservation, and may be depended on, and it's all for your good that I say it."

"Vy, farder," responded the young hopeful, 'vat a 'normous 'sperience you must a had."

☞ "Vell, Shake, how bees Sam?"

"Oh, he was better as vorser yistertay, but apout von o'clock last nite he gits vorser as petter, and he gits out of pet mit his bed, and shust ven I goes to gif him sum goreporic dis morning, vat you dink, Shake, he yust shump up ted."

"Vell, dat dere ish pad, py tam."

☞ An Irishman, attending a religious meeting, heard a young man make the following announcement—

"Brethren and sisters, I am going to marry a daughter of the Lord."

"Faith, and be jabers, and it will be a long time before you will see your father-in-law!" cried Pat.

—The English papers bring a denial from Lord Rosse of the idle rumors that he has declared it as his belief that the approaching summer would be one of the hottest seasons ever known. This will tend to weaken the faith of the New Jersey Second Adventists, who have partially based their predictions upon the above statement.

—The strong-minded women of Tonica, La Salle county, Illinois, have extracted pledges from the keepers of liquor saloons in that place that they will sell no more liquors, and that there shall be no more card playing, checker playing, &c., on their premises.

CHARMING must be the swamps of Florida, which are said to be capable of producing five hundred bushels of frogs to the acre, with alligators enough for fencing.

ON SHOEING HORSES THAT OVER-REACH.

I was bred from my youth a blacksmith and farmer, and whether a natural mechanic or not, I was always anxious to know the whys and wherefores of things, or more properly speaking, the casualties and preventives. I was also fond of trying experiments upon such things as appeared favorable for improvements. I was generally in the shop with my father of evenings, rainy days, and such other times as I could be spared from the farm or school. By being in the shop so much, I obtained views of the farmers generally, and by that was enabled ta make many improvements on the farm. I learned, also, that many farmers entertain very erroneous views about blacksmithing, (and I might add blacksmiths, too,) still they were bound to dictate according to prejudices; as, for instance, one says, "This horse overreaches; I want you to put the forward shoes as far forward as possible, and set the hind shoes as far back, or he will tear them off." I would sometimes try to reason the case by saying, the way to prevent a horse from overreaching is to augment the speed of the forward feet, and retard the motion of the hind ones; but in order to accomplish that I shall have to reverse your directions. Some who had little or no mechanical genius would cut short all argument, and say, "Follow my directions, or else not shoe the horse." Of course a mechanic must obey orders, if he breaks owners, so the horses would go out of the shop nicely fettered, with his shoes clicking at every step; while, perhaps, the man of inquiry would desire a full explanation. My way is to make the toe-corks very low, and standing a little under, and the shoes set as far back as convenient on the forward feet, with high heel-cork, so as to let them roll over as soon as possible. On the hind feet I have the heel-cork low and the toe-cork high, projecting forward, thus keeping back the hind foot while coming up over a high toe-cork, giving time to the forward foot to get out of the way. If thus shod, the horse will travel clean, without a click, and his speed will be increased on a trot fifteen or twenty seconds in a mile.—New England Farmer.

A PORTABLE FENCE.

As timber in many places is becoming scarce, it is for the interest of every farmer to construct his fences, if of timber, with the smallest quantity possible consistent with durability. I will give you a description of a portable fence that I have constructed, with its advantages over a common fence, hoping that if any of your subscribers or correspondents have a better mode, they will make it public. Each length is made of five boards twelve feet long and four inches wide, placed six inches apart, and made firm by putting a strip on each side of the ends and fastening with nails that can be driven through and clinched, and a strip across the middle; then put on a cap, which not only stiffens the fence, but prevents the water rotting the cleats. The fence is supported by setting posts at each end of the sections, and by putting two pins through each post between the strips, the top board, and that next to the bottom one, resting on the pins. Some of its advantages over common fences are as follows: If a post fails, it can be replaced by another; or if raised by the frost, it can be driven down without injuring the fence, in not requiring a middle post; and also, if this fence is on a road that is liable to be drifted by snow in consequence of the existence of the fence, it can be easily removed in the fore part of winter and replaced in the spring, not only saving the disagreeable task of shovelling snow, but preserving the fence. Being constructed independent of the posts, it can be raised or lowered at pleasure, thereby saving the trouble of hampering horeses, if the construction be for them alone. This fence can be constructed at leisure, and set up when needed.—It may appear too slender, but exposure will prove it to be sufficiently strong, the durability consisting in being thoroughly nailed.

LARGE TREES FROM LITTLE ACORNS GROW.—Mr. S. P. Maybery, of Maine, in the Rural Intelligencer, gives his experiment thus with half a pint of beans. Farmers' boys should profit by the hint.

"I will give your readers an account of money received from one-half pint of beans which were planted in the spring of 1856. I gave for the one-half pint twenty-five cents. Sold five dollars' worth, and saved four quarts for seed. In 1857 I sold what brought me twenty-five dollars, and have one-half bushel for seed. Those last were planted betwixt my squash hills. I also raised a crop of turnips on the spare ground among them."

—Elihu Burritt, the well-known lecturer, is to publish a paper at New Britain, Ct. It is to be called The North and South, and will be devoted mainly to the advocacy of Mr. B.'s plan of effecting the gradual abolition of slavery by compensation to the owners.

—Grasshoppers, it is said, have appeared in swarms in some sections of Iowa.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT:

WILLIAM A. PORTER,

Of Philadelphia.

CANAL COMMISSIONER:

WESTLEY FROST,

Of Fayette County.

A MISERABLE ABORTION.

The hybrid, speckled, spotted, ring-streaked and striped opposition to the Democratic Party, endeavored to get up a public meeting on Tuesday evening last, but failed most ingloriously in the attempt. They had published the call for the meeting in their organ, in the most conspicuous style and had resorted to especial pains to attract a crowd on the occasion, but all in vain. The people have been too often deceived by their hollow promises and insidious misrepresentations and, therefore, stayed at home and treated them with the contempt due to their trickery and dishonesty. A friend who counted the number of persons present at the meeting when in full blast, assures us that it did not exceed eighty-seven, or eighty-eight, all told!

By dint of hard labor, the Abolition boss-politicians, of whom MR. F. JORDAN and MR. J. H. FILLER, seemed to be the most active, finally succeeded in organizing the meeting. They managed to raise a President and were so extraordinarily successful as to obtain the consent of two men to act as Vice Presidents. Indeed, they were even so wonderfully fortunate as to secure the services of a few secretaries, whom they were compelled to take from Bedford Borough, for, had they taken them from the rural districts, there would have been great danger that no material would remain whereof to construct the committee on resolutions, which was to be composed of one man from each district. After the "heavy work" of organizing the meeting was at last finished, MR. JORDAN, of Simon Cameron and "Buzzard Feast" notoriety, stated the object of the meeting and moved the appointment of a Committee of one from each election district to draft resolutions. MR. JORDAN called over the townships and boroughs, but only eight men could be found who were willing and ready to assist him in punctuating his resolutions. When MR. JORDAN called out Cumberland Valley, his face wore a most lugubrious expression, and he could not refrain from making a fling at the glorious Democracy of that ever faithful township. There was no response from "Little Bedford" when Abolitionism called upon its name! Whilst MR. JORDAN and his committee were out tinkering at their resolutions, MR. JOHN H. FILLER, entertained (?) the large and enthusiastic audience with one of his most brilliant and elaborately written out, though badly committed, lectures on—bosh! MR. FILLER'S platitudes fell forceless upon his hearers, and it seemed that not even the strong flavor of the sweet scented negro, with which his speech was so delightfully perfumed, could induce his Abolition friends to sit still long enough to hear him out. Seeing that his efforts were thinning the meeting, he cut short his remarks and retired, in evident disgust at the dullness of his hearers in not appreciating his most remarkable and extraordinary address. MR. FILLER in the course of his speech, undertook to say that under the English Kansas Bill lately adopted by Congress, Kansas could not be admitted into the Union until 1860, or until a remote period, unless she would accept the Lecompton Constitution, and, therefore, would be compelled to remain a Territory for years to come. Now a certain Governor Walker, whom Mr. Filler gladly accepted as authority a short time ago, denies this in toto. He (Walker) says that Kansas will have the requisite population to entitle her to one member of Congress in a very short time, and, therefore, the people of that Territory will not have to labor under the disability of which Mr. Filler complains. We opine, however, that the longer Kansas will be kept out of the Union, the better Mr. Filler and his party will like it. It is but a short time ago since we heard Mr. Filler publicly declare that he and his party did not desire that the Kansas question should be settled and that they wanted Kansas to remain as it is. This we can prove and we dare Mr. Filler to deny it. His tears over this matter, therefore, are not genuine. Like many others of his political friends, he is considerable of a crocodile about the region of the eyes.

After Mr. Filler had concluded his speech, MR. R. D. BARCLAY was called upon, who proceeded to rehearse the editorials of the Bedford Abolition organ on Senator Bigler, and other Democrats, in which laudable and interesting performance he employed himself until the Committee on resolutions returned from their pow-wow in the jury-room. Of the resolves of this redoubtable Committee, we shall speak at length in our next. We can only, at present, add that a more miserable abortion in the shape of a political meeting than the one under consideration, has never come within our knowledge.

EARLY VEGETABLES.—MR. JOHN FLEMING, gardener at Bedford Springs, exhibited to us a few days ago some very fine vegetables which were raised by him during the present Spring. Among them was a cucumber nine inches long, also a bunch of radishes fit for the table and a lot of very nice lettuce. If this isn't setting the seasons and the clerk of the weather at defiance, we would like to know what is!

—It is an extraordinary fact, that when people come to what is commonly called high words they generally use low language.

GLORIOUS NEWS!

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY VICTORIOUS!

The Conference Lecompton Bill adopted by Congress!

The Bill for the admission of Kansas, reported by the Democrats of the Conference Committee, has passed both Houses of Congress. This is a great triumph for the Administration of MR. BUCHANAN and the Democratic party, as it sustains the position of the former that the Lecompton Constitution is a legal instrument, and distinctly recognises the great doctrine of the latter, the principle of Popular Sovereignty. It will reunite with our party, those Democrats who differed with the President on the Lecompton question, whilst it will, at the same time, fully satisfy those who agreed with him. Governor Walker and his wing of the Anti-Lecompton Democrats, it is understood, have already given in their adhesion to the measure. We publish the Bill in another part of our paper, this week, so that our readers may see and judge for themselves, of its fairness. It will be seen that the people of Kansas are to have a fair opportunity to accept, or reject, the Lecompton Constitution. The Bill passed finally in the House, by a vote of 113 to 100, and in the Senate, by a vote of 30 to 22.

RAIL ROAD MEETING!

Pursuant to public notice, a meeting of the Commissioners of the Bedford Rail Road Company, was held in the Court House, on Monday evening last. MAJOR WASHABAUGH was called to the Chair, and JOSEPH W. TATE, ALEX. FLETCHER and THOMAS H. MURRAY, Esqrs., were appointed Secretaries.

On motion, the meeting was addressed by HON. WM. P. SCHELL, who referred at length to the advantages to be derived by the citizens of the county, from the construction of the Bedford Railroad, and showed clearly that the project of building the said Railroad, is at present entirely feasible. Among other important statements which he made during the course of his remarks, he announced the fact that the sum of $75,000 has already been subscribed to the road by capitalists in the East. After Mr. Schell had concluded his speech, Francis Jordan, Esq., was called for, who responded in an able effort in favor of the Railroad.

On motion, a Committee of nine was appointed to take subscriptions. The following gentlemen compose the Committee:

E. L. Anderson, Daniel Washabaugh, J. W. Tate, John Alsip, W. P. Schell, O. E. Shannon, Fr. Jordan, Job Mann, Nicholas Lyons.

The above named Committee were empowered to appoint Township Committees, to assist them in procuring subscriptions. The meeting then adjourned.

The Committee appointed at the meeting on Monday evening, to obtain subscriptions to the Bedford Railroad, met on Tuesday, at the office of Col. Jos. W. Tate, and appointed the following Township Committees.

POSITION OF GOVERNOR WALKER.

We announced some days ago that Hon. R. J. Walker was reported to be in favor of Mr. English's substitute. The following correspondence, published in the Union of yesterday, will show his position. We give it without comment:

WASHINGTON CITY, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
April 30, 1858.

To the Editor of the Union:

I ask you to publish the enclosed letter of Governor Walker in justification of my vote and that of my colleague, Mr. Lawrence, to-day, in favor of the conference bill. The letter explains itself. It it is manly vindication of our much-abused judgment. I understand that it meets with Governor Stanton's approval. I hope so. It seems so consonant with his views and experience. It certainly had its full weight in determining my vote on so vexed a question.

With respect,
SAMUEL S. COX.

WASHINGTON CITY, April 27, 1858.

DEAR SIRS: Your letter of this date has just been received, and I hasten to say, that in my judgment, the conference Kanses bill should be adopted. I expressed this opinion on first reading the bill on Saturday last, and must adhere to it, although, if the bill had been, as falsely represented, a submission of the ordinance only, I should have sternly opposed it. This bill, as interpreted by me, is in precise conformity with my views and course not only in Kansas, but since my return, and, following the path where duty and conscience bade me, I must support it. I must be permitted, however, to do this in such a way as will cast no censure on valued friends, who honestly oppose this bill, because their construction of it differs from my own. Whilst this bill maintains my views as to popular sovereignty, it would, if adopted, save the Union from imminent peril. If the bill passes, the odious Lecompton Constitution, born in fraud and baptized in forgery and perjury, will be defeated by an overwhelming vote of the people of Kansas thus demonstrating by practical results the truth of my interpretation, that this bill does in fact submit the constitution to the popular suffrage, for ratification or rejection, which is all I have ever required. With such a bill, and such a decision of that people, under it, no formidable effort will ever be again made to withhold from the people of inchoate States a vote for or against the ratification or rejection of their State constitution, and the oligarchive doctrine of conventional sovereignty will be abandoned. I write in great haste, and will, at a future period, imbody my views fully in a letter for publication, as expressed in our recent conversation. Yours, truly,

R. J. WALKER.

Hon. S. S. Cox and Hon. Wm. Lawrence.

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON THE KANSAS BILL.

The Committee of Conference appointed to consider the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment to the Senate bill No. 161, entitled "A bill for the admission of the State of Kansas," report that they have had the subject under consideration, and have given it that careful, patient, and mature deliberation which they conceive its importance demands, and have agreed upon an amendment in the nature of a substitute for the House amendment to the Senate bill.

They earnestly recommend the adoption of this amendment by the two Houses of Congress.

A BILL FOR THE ADMISSION OF KANSAS.

WHEREAS the people of the Territory of Kansas did, by a convention of delegates assembled at Lecompton, on the 7th day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven for that purpose, form for themselves a constitution and State Government, which constitution is republican; and whereas, at the same time and place, said convention did adopt an ordinance, which said ordinance asserts that Kansas, when admitted as a State, will have an undoubted right to tax the lands within her limits belonging to the United States, and proposes to relinquish said asserted right if certain conditions set forth in said ordinance be accepted and agreed to by the Congress of the United States; and whereas the said constitution and ordinance have been presented to the Congress of the United States by order of said convention, and admission of said Territory into the Union thereon as a State requested; and whereas said ordinance is not acceptable to Congress, and it is desirable to ascertain whether the people of Kansas concur in the changes in said ordinance hereinafter stated, and desire admission into the Union as a State as herein proposed:

Therefore,

Be it enacted, &c., That the State of Kansas be, and is hereby admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States in all respects whatever, but upon the fundamental conditions precedent, namely: that the question of admission with the following proposition in lieu of the ordinance framed at Lecompton be submitted to a vote of the people of Kansas, and assented to by them or a majority of the voters voting at an election to be held for that purpose namely: that the following propositions be, and the same are hereby, offered to the people of Kansas for acceptance or rejection, which, if accepted, shall be obligatory on the United States and upon the said State of Kansas, to wit:

First, That sections numbered sixteen and thirty-six in every township of public lands in said State, or where either of said sections or any part thereof has been sold or otherwise disposed of, other lands, equivalent thereto and as contiguous as may be, shall be granted to said State for the use of schools.

Second, That seventy two sections of land shall be set apart and reserved for the support of a State University, to be selected by the Governor of said State, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and to be appropriated and applied in such manner as the Legislature of said State may perscribe for the purpose aforesaid, but for no other purpose.

Third, That ten entire sections of land, to be selected by the Governor of said State, in legal subdivisions, shall be granted to said State for the purpose of completing the public buildings or for the erection of others at the seat of government, under the direction of the Legislature thereof.

Fourth, That all salt springs within said State, not exceeding twelve in number, with six sections of land adjoining, or as contiguous as may be to each, shall be granted to said State for its use, the same to be selected by the Governor thereof within one year after the admission of said State, and, when so selected, to be used or disposed of on such terms, conditions, and regulations as the Legislature may direct: Provided, That no salt spring or land, the right whereof is now vested in any individual or individuals, or which may hereafter be confirmed or adjudged to any individual or individuals, shall by this article be granted to said State.

Fifth, That five per centum of the net proceeds of sales of all the public lands lying within said State which shall be sold by Congress after the admission of said State into the Union, after deducting all the expenses incident to the same, shall be paid to said State for the purpose of making public roads and internal improvements, as the Legislature shall direct: Provided, The foregoing propositions herein offered are on the condition that said State of Kansas shall never interfere with the primary disposal of the lands of the United States, or with any regulation which Congress may find necessary for securing the title in said soil to bona fide purchasers thereof; and that no tax shall be imposed on lands belonging to the United States, and that in no case shall non-resident proprietors be taxed higher than residents.

Sixth, And that said State shall never tax the lands or property of the United States in that State.

At the said election the voting shall be by ballot, and by endorsing on his ballot, as each voter may please, "proposition accepted" or "proposition rejected." Should a majority of the votes cast be for "proposition accepted," the the President of the United States, as soon as the facts are duly made known to him, shall announce the same by proclamation; and thereafter, and without any further proceedings on the part of Congress, the admission of the State of Kansas into the Union upon an equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatever shall be complete and absolute, and said State shall be entitled to one member in the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States until the next census be taken by the federal government; but should a majority of the votes cast be for "proposition rejected," it shall be deemed and held that the people of Kansas do not desire admission into the Union with said constitution under the conditions set forth in said proposition, and in that event the people of said Territory are hereby authorized and empowered to form for themselves a constitution and State government, by the name of the State of Kansas, according to the federal constitution, and may elect delegates for that purpose whenever, and not before, it is ascertained by a census duly and legally taken that the population of said Territory equals or exceeds the ratio of representation required for a member of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States; and whenever thereafter such delegates shall assemble in convention, they shall first determine by a vote whether it is the wish of the people of the proposed State to be admitted into the Union at that time; and if so, shall proceed to form a constitution and take all necessary steps for the establishment of a State government in conformity with the federal constitution, subject to such limitations and restrictions as to the mode and manner of its approval or ratification by the people of the proposed State as they may have prescribed by law, and shall be entitled to admission into the Union as a State under such constitution thus fairly and legally made with or without slavery, as said constitution may prescribe.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of insuring, as far possible, that the election authorized by this act may be fair and free, the Governor, United States District Attorney, and Secretary of the Territory of Kansas, and the presiding officers of the two branches of its Legislature—namely, the President of the Council and Speaker of the House of Representatives—are hereby constituted a board of commissioners to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to use all the means necessary and proper to that end. And three of them shall constitute a board; and the board shall have power and authority to designate and establish precincts for voting, or to adopt those already established; to cause polls to be opened at such places as it may deem proper in the respective counties and election precincts of said Territory; to appoint as judges of election, at each of the several places of voting, three discreet and respectable persons, any two of whom shall be competent to act; to require the sheriffs of the several counties, by themselves or deputies, to attend the judges at each of the places of voting, for the purpose of preserving peace and good order; or the said board may, instead of said sheriffs and their deputies, appoint at their discretion, and in such instances as they may choose, other fit persons for the same purpose. The election hereby authorized shall continue one day only, and shall not be continued later than sundown on that day. The said board shall appoint the day for holding said election, and the said Governor shall announce the same by proclamation; and the day shall be as early a one as is consistent with due notice thereof to the people of said Territory, subject to the provisions of this act. The said board shall have full power to prescribe the time, manner, and places of said election, and to direct the time and manner of the returns thereof, which returns shall be made to the said board, whose duty it shall be to announce the result by proclamation, and the said Governor shall certify the same to the President of the United States without delay.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the election hereby authorized, all white male inhabitants of said Territory over the age of twenty-one years, who possess the qualifiations, which were required by the laws of said Territory, for a legal voter at the last general election for the members of the Territorial Legislature, and none others, shall be allowed to vote; and this shall be the only qualification required to entitle the voter to the right of suffrage in said election. And if any person not so qualified shall vote, at said election, or shall make or cause to be made any false, fictitious, or fraudulent returns, or shall alter or change any returns of said election, such person shall, upon conviction thereof before any Court of competent jurisdiction, be kept at hard labor not less than six months, and not more than three years.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the members of the aforesaid board of commissioners, and all persons appointed by them to carry into effect the provisions of this act, shall, before entering upon their duties, take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of their respective offices; and, on failure thereof, they shall be liable and subjected to the same charges and penalties as are provided in like cases under the territorial laws.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the oficers mentioned in the preceding section shall receive for their services the same compensation as is given for like services under the territorial laws.

☞MRS. H. D. PEUGH, at her store IN ANDERSON'S ROW, has just opened out her new stock of elegant fancy goods, to which she invites the attention of the public.

Admitted to the Bar.—On Wednesday evening last, Messrs. S. M. WOODCOCK, A. D. FERGUSON, SAMUEL LYON and E. J. BONBRAKE, were admitted to the practice of the Law in the several courts of this county, having passed with credit, a thorough examination. After their admission, like good and hospitable fellows, as they are, they regaled their friends and the members of the Bar, with a splendid entertainment at the "Washington," which was done up in MRS. COOK'S usual excellent style. Success to these young "limbs of the Law."

Farmers, Attention.—MR. JOHN F. LOWRY, of Hopewell, in this county, has renovated the Hopewell Mills and makes an excellent proposition to farmers in our paper of to-day. He proposes to deliver at the Railroad and to load in the cars, free of charge, all grain intended for the Broad Top, or Eastern markets, if deposited in his Mill. MR. LOWRY is a clever and obliging gentleman and we assure our farmer readers that should they see fit to deal with him, they will find him an honest and upright business man.

A TERRIBLE CRIME REVEALED!—We published, about two weeks ago, a detailed account of the finding of the bones and clothing of a man in the woods about sixteen miles from this city. This publication has elicited a full explanation of the mystery, revealing the name residence, and occupation of the unfortunate man, and the circumstances of his death. His name was John Hickey. He was a railroad contractor, and was murdered and robbed of a large sum of money in August last, and left by his murderer to rot in the woods where he was found. The name and present whereabouts of the probable murderer are known, and the proper legal authorities are already in hot pursuit of him. We cannot give further particulars at present, but shall lay the whole matter before our readers at the earliest practicable moment.—Detroit Free Press.

The New Liquor Law.

For the information of those who have already taken out license, under the provisions of the old law, we publish the following further supplement to the new law:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all persons who have taken out license during the month of April, A. D. 1858, under the provisions of the law to which this is a supplement, shall be charged in accordance with the rate of License provided for by the supplement passed April 20th, 1858, and the County Treasurers of the several counties are hereby authorized to refund to such persons as have paid a greater price than is required by the supplement above referred to, the excess above the rates of license.

G. NELSON SMITH,
Speaker of the House of Reps., pro tem.
WM. H. WELSH,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the twenty-second day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight. WM. F. PACKER.

FATAL ACCIDENT TO A CLERGYMAN.—On the 14th inst., as the Rev. Dudley A. Tyng, of Philadelphia, was witnessing the operation of a threshing machine on his farm at Brookfield, near that city, his right arm was caught by the cogs and seriously injured. At first it was thought the arm could be saved, for it was only severely lacerated, but it was soon found that, that could not be done, and on the 17th it was amputated at the shoulder. But the inflammation had risen so high, and the sufferer had become so completely prostrated that mortification followed, and his sufferings were ended by death on the 19th. His age was only thirty-five years, but in his short career, he had become one of the first men of the country. He was particularly distinguished in the summer of 1856, and subsequently, by his bold preaching against slavery, while his orthodoxy and devotion to the Episcopal Church remained above question.—He was the son of the celebrated Dr. Stephen H. Tyng, of St. George's Church, New York. In announcing his death, the Philadelphia North American says:

His father, the Rev. Dr. Tyng, was at the bedside of the sufferer, ar his spirit took its flight to another and a brighter sphere. A widow and several children have been left to mourn this fearful bereavement. Mr. Tyng has passed away in the midst of his usefulness, and when he was building a new Church, and under the most favorable auspices. The Philadelphia Press thus sketches his character: "His thorough independence, his cordial sympathy with all the great philanthropic movements of the day, his remarkable eloquence, and his genial manners, have won for him a position rarely attained at so early a period of life, by any one in the same profession."

NOTICE TO FARMERS!

THE subscriber having taken charge of the Mills and Warehouse at Hopewell, makes the following proposition to farmers and produce dealers, to wit:

All grain placed in the mills, intended for the Hopewell or Broadtop markets, or to be forwarded to any of the Eastern cities, will be conveyed from the mills to the warehouse, and loaded in the cars, free of charge. The mills have been thoroughly repaired, and are capable of doing as good work as any mill in the county.

The largest market price paid for all kinds of produce. JOHN F. LOWRY.

WILL MEDICINE CURE A CHRONIC DISEASE.—Chronic Diseases, as a general thing, are more difficult to cure than those termed acute, for the reason that the tissues are often injured in their structure. It usually takes a longer time to cure Chronic than recent diseases, but still they are curable when a proper remedy is applied. Diseases of the Lungs, Bronchia, and Pulmonary apparatus should not be suffered to continue long, as they generally lay the foundation of incurable disease. One of the best remedies for the cure of these complaints is Dr. Keyser's PECTORAL SYRUP, prepared by that gentleman, at 140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa, and sold by Samuel Brown, Bedford, & Colvin & Robinson, Schellsburg.

A SUBLIME PICTURE.—Almost every household in the land presents pictures that are not exceeded in sublimity by any thing in nature. The patient toiling of a woman with a needle is a sublime, but sad picture indeed; one that it would be well for humanity to have removed from every home circle, by the introduction of GROVER & BAKER'S Family Sewing Machine, which does more beautiful and better sewing than can be done by hand. It is, unquestionably, the best in the market for family use, and every family should have one.

MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

R. FRANCE & CO., MANAGERS.

Caution Notice.

Persons living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $40,000 head their schemes—with tickets at One Dollar. $100,000 Capital Prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds: if money is sent for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in compar son to the price of tickets. In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud.

The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland drawings; all other Lotteries which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds.

THE MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES.

Purchase in the Maryland State Lotteries, then you are sure of being right. And in ordering the Maryland Lotteries, you are sure of honest and fair drawings.

One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vender in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the number printed, and have the lithographed signature of R. France & Co.

No one has a right to send his individual certificates, and if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it.

THE WONDER OF THE AGE!

J. M. LINSEY'S GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

Which is a purely vegetable Preparation, for the purifying of blood, giving vigor to the Liver, stomach and bowels, and expelling from the system all morbid matter, and substituting in its stead a healthful activity through all the functions of life.

HOW IT WAS DISCOVERED!

In the fall of 1854 a daughter of Mr. Lindsey was suffering from a malignant attack of Cancrum Oris (Canker of the mouth.) She had previously been prostrated by the attacks of Dysentary, Inflamation of the lungs and Hectic Fever, successively, which resulted in the above named disease in its worst form. Her condition was most deplorable—her mouth and cheek were literally rotten—the attending physician pronounced the case a hopeless one. Everything indicated a speedy and horrible death—the death of rotting out of life! At this critical juncture Mr. Lindsey prepared a compound for the purpose of alleviating, possible, the pains of the little sufferer. She was made to use it freely, and in a short time to his most delightful astonishment, there was a very perceptible change for the better. The mouth began to put on a bright and healthy appearance—the foul breath became sweet—the appetite was restored, and the child seemed to partake of a new and fresh life.

Hope was inspired, and the use of the compound was faithfully continued, the result of which, with the blessing of God, was her complete restoration.—She is now perfectly healthy: From this circumstance, Mr. Lindsey was led to prepare with greater care and exactness, what had so astonishingly cured his child, and continued his experimental efforts until he succeeded in bringing to perfection his Great Remedy for Blood Impurity—since which time its effects have been almost miraculous. Hundreds upon hundreds, by it, have been snatched from an untimely grave and restored to the sweets of health and the endearment of friends. The young and old have tested it, saying powers and sing aloud its virtues. Say they—"after using Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher, we felt as if a new life was stirring our veins, and under God we owe to it more than words can express."

But hear from their own lips and then judge of its valuable effects. The few testimonials that follow show that it is deservedly styled the Greatest Discovery of this or any other age.

CERTIFICATES!

Pattonsville, Bedford co., Pa., Oct. 14, '57.

Mr. J. M. LINDSEY.

Dear Sir:—I was severely afflicted with rheumatism for a whole year—nine months of which time I was not able to leave my bed—when hearing of the wonderful effects of your Improved Blood Searcher, I determined to procure some it and give it a fair trial. After using three bottles I was able to walk around again as usual, and am now wholly cured. I can recommend it to all who are similarly afflicted, and believe it is all it claims to be.

Yours, truly, JOHN SHAFFER.

A DESPERATE CASE OF TETTER and BARBER'S ITCH, cured by the use of Lindsey's Blood Searcher. I, the undersigned, sometime in last March was severely afflicted with what was pronounced by my physicians to be a certain kind of Tetter and Barber's Itch. My condition was one of the greatest misery; my face was almost constantly running with the foul corruption that escaped from the tubercles, by which it was almost completely covered. After being under the care of my physicians for near two months, without the least benefit, I was induced to make a trial of Lindsey's Blood Searcher, and the result was that in using one bottle and a half I found a perfect cure, I may also say that I remedy tried whatever was recommended as a cure.—Such was my wretchedness that I even resorted to the dangerous experiment of pouring pure Creosote on my face and neck, but all to no purpose—the Blood Searcher was the first and only thing that did me any good. As a blood purifier it is unequalled; & I have great reason to be grateful that I ever made a trial of its healing virtues, and I confidently recommend it to any who may suffer from Tetter, or any other disease arising from an impure state of the blood. JOHN DELEHUNT.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., July 29 1857.

AN INTERESTING CASE OF SCROFULA cured by one bottle of Lindsey's Blood Searcher.—This certifies that about one year ago our little son aged four years, was most sorely afflicted with what the physicians pronounced to be a scrofula, and was treated accordingly for nearly a year, but without the slightest benefit. His eyes were running a thin mattery humor almost constantly; which would encrust his eyes beyond the power of opening them until they were washed and cleaned by soap and water. About the same time an abscess formed just below the groin, which in due time broke and commenced a discharge, which was found impossible to dry up or heal—the bed would be very much stained and the clothing of the child perfectly sickening in a single nights time. After having the attentions of a physician for so long a time, and finding the child to be getting worse, we determined to try the effects of Mr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher. This was in last March—and before two weeks had passed away the change was manifest, and I am happy to say that in the use of a SINGLE BOTTLE our little boy has been perfectly restored to health. We cannot speak too highly of this invaluable medicine. It should be in every family—none should be without it. As a purifier of blood it is beyond all price!

DANIEL BOLLINGER.

Hollidaysburg, Pa., July 29, 1857.

Hollidaysburg, Pa. March 19th, 1857.

Dr. J. M. LINDSEY,—Dear Sir: I have been using your Improved Blood Searcher since some time last summer, and I deem it to be a matter of duty to bear my testimony to its invigorating blood restorative virtues. I have been for a number of years severely troubled erysipelas and general debility; but since I put myself under the influence of your Improved Blood Searcher, I find a very decided improvement. Indeed, my acquaintances frequently remark, that I look so "fat and hearty;" and I know of no other cause than the use of your Improved Blood Searcher. Judging from my own experience, I believe that this is one of the most valuable medicines that woman can use, especially those who are or have entered upon the decline of life (from 40 to 50 years of age). I feel that it would have been above ingratitude on my my part to have withheld this testimony, and in thus consenting to appear as a witness before the public. I have been actuated solely with reference to the voice of conscience and duty. You are at liberty to make whatever use you may deem proper of this statement. Yours, respectfully,

MARGARET W. O'DONNELL.

LIVER COMPLAINT CURED BY Lindsey's Improved Blood-Searcher.—Blair County, ss. Personally appeared before me, one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for Blair county, George Kopp, who, being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: Two years ago I was afflicted with pain between the shoulders, almost constant cough, loss of appetite, chills, nightsweats, and very subject to take colds; I, at length, became so weak that I could hardly walk; my physician done me no good. Sometime last fall, I commenced taking Lindsey's improved blood-searcher, and by the use of two bottles was perfectly cured. I feel, to recommend it to all who suffer from Liver diseases, general debility, loss of appetite, and other diseases arising from impurity of the blood. I would not like to do without it.—I consider it an excellent family medicine.

(Signed) GEORGE KOPP.

NOTE.—Mr. Kopp is a resident of Frankstown; and is well known to the citizens of Blair and Bedford counties as a man of excellent character and influence.

A DESPERATE CASE OF AGUE AND DYSPEPSIA, entirely cured by the use of Lindsey's "Improved Blood-Searcher."

Blair County, ss.—Personally appeared before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace, in and for said county, John Moran, who, being duly sworn according to law, do depose and say that in the spring of 1856, I was a victim to that worst of diseases—dyspepsia, and that in its worst form. My appetite was completely gone, and when, in order to preserve life, I would force myself to swallow a mouthful of food, the stomach would immediately loath it, and cast it forth with the spittle. I had also been suffering with the ague; each attack lasting about nine months out of the twelve, so that, with the ague and dyspepsia, I was reduced as I thought beyond recovery; I thought I must die, my physician could do me no good. Such was my condition, when Mr. Lindsey supplied me with a bottle of his improved blood-searcher, assuring me it would work a cure. I commenced its use but with little confidence, but, in one week's time—so great was its restorative powers—I found my appetite to return, my stomach received a new tone, so that I could eat anything without the slightest inconvenience, and before its healing touch the ague fled as from a charm; nor have I been troubled with ague or dyspepsia since. I enjoy a better state of health than I had done for fifteen years before; I am strong and hearty, and I feel confident that, under the blessing of God, I owe all to the invaluable Improved Blood-Searcher. I believe it not to be only a sure remedy for ague, but an infallible preventive, and, as such, would recommend it to all whose business, habits, or residences, expose them to this dreadful pest of humanity. Dyspepsia cannot stay where the Improved Blood-Searcher is properly used. I feel it my duty to point all who suffer, to this all-healing medicine. (signed.) JOHN MORAN,

From A. Woodward, M. In the treatment of seminal weakness, or dis-arrangement of the functions produced by Self-abuse, or Excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I have been acquainted with the author some thirty years, I deem it no more than justice to him as well as kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion, to recommend him as one, in whose profession skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves.

YOUNG AMERICA VICTORIOUS

One small box of Pills cures ninety-nine cases out of a hundred. No Balsam, no Mercury, no odor on the breath, no fear of detection. Two small pills a dose; tasteless and harmless as water. Full directions are given, so that the patient can cure himself as certain as with the advice of the most experienced surgeon, and much better than with the advice of one of little experience in this class of disease.

SENT BY MAIL TO ANY PART OF THE COUNTRY by enclosing one dollar to Dr. D. G. Walton No. 151 North Seventh St. below Race, Philadelphia. A liberal discount to the trade. None genuine without the written signature of D. G. Walton Proprietor.

DR. W.'S treatment for Self-abuse, Weakness, &c., is entirely different from the usual course. Dr. W. has cured hundreds who have tried others without benefit. The treatment is as certain to cure as the sun is to rise. Enclose a stamp and address Dr. W. as above giving a full history of your case, and you will bless the day you made the effort to secure what is certain—A RADICAL CURE.
